—Wick-like things which even good people allow and enjoy—lamps. You can get them at Houghton's.

—A job lot of port monnaies, wallets, bill books, and money purses, for sale at Houghton's, at unheard of prices.

—The immense sale on those heavier overcoats at Harvey's, has obliged him to order a second shipment. Will sell cheap. 10-3

—Five days vacation including Thanksgiving and Sunday, to scholars and teachers, and they entered upon their duties Monday with renewed zeal.

—The Union Thanksgiving services were well attended, and very interesting. Mr. Day taking somewhat a new line in his discourse.

—An Old Folks Concert is talked of in connection with the Congregational Church Fair, in which Miss Hattie Elliott will take a prominent part.

—Old Probabilities was a reliable prophet last Saturday, and the wind and weather adjusted themselves to suit his predictions.

—Pupils in the High school are learning to sing under the instruction of Mrs. Kenison; two lessons a week being given in the school-room.

—Just received this morning, a third shipment of winter caps. The latest styles. Prices sure to please. 10-3

—The bell from the North Primary school building was taken down Saturday, and put in the belfry of the High school edifice.

—From the numbers visiting Dr. Holbrook's office, over the post office, it appears his patients have no difficulty in finding his new rooms.

—Any choice new book for the Holidays noticed in the reviews, can be procured at publisher's prices at J. W. Houghton's. Call and leave your orders.

—All colors of perforated board, also gilt and silver card board, at Houghton's; also a very choice new lot of scrap pictures for applique work. 11-4

—WANTED ON SALARY.—Two live men to sell Singer Sewing Machine in this vicinity. Experience not necessary. Enquire of E. F. Spaulsby, agent, 22 Chesapeake, Elyria, O. 11-2

—The Thanksgiving dinner at the American House, in the evening, was very well attended. After a sumptuous banquet, the dining room was cleared, and those who enjoy dancing tarried till it was early.

—Harvey has the finest assortment of gloves and mittens ever brought to Wellington. Buck, dog and calf skin, yarn and cloth with leather fronts and at prices to astonish the natives. 10-3

—Miss Kate Powers is preparing to meet the wants of patrons in getting ready a supply of useful and beautiful articles suitable for holiday gifts. Go and see her stock in making your rounds of shopping with reference to Christmas. 10-17

—A kind and thoughtful father came into our office Tuesday and subscribed and paid for three of the best weekly papers, to be sent for the coming year to a married daughter in another State. We shall be forgiven for admitting that this was the ENTERPRISE, since coming to us almost daily from foreign subscribers, formerly residents hereabouts, are words of appreciation of the value of the weekly visits of the paper that brings them news from home.

—Our readers must not complain if a good deal of our space is given to telling them where to buy Holiday goods, and fix up for the cold weather.

—Our advertisers want to be heard first, and the local paper in a sense belongs to them, since they help it to exist.

—Ladies who have not supplied themselves with cloaks and circulars, can save from 35 to 50 per cent. by buying them at Fitch's. A nice assortment received to-day. This offer is only good for two weeks, as all that are not disposed of within that time will be returned to the factory.

—The Cleveland City Hospital, on Lake street, had a narrow escape from burning Tuesday evening. The fire caught from chimney sparks lighting the roof near the dome. So much water was necessary to save it that the damage by water will exceed that done by the flames.

—A freight car jumped the track Wednesday evening, a little north of Wellington. It was righted, and delayed the train only an hour or so. The same evening a broken rail threw a passenger car from the track, a short distance this side of LaGrange. Several trains were loaded with railroad iron, and the track was blocked several hours.

—For a practical Holiday present, call at the sewing machine room in Union Block, and buy a first-class machine of an established reputation. The public does not seem slow to appreciate the advantages offered, as my sales yesterday showed 224 machines in the last two years.

—Baldwin, Laundon & Co., have made a corner in oil, having purchased something over one hundred barrels for the winter trade. In the dry goods department there is such a rush as to suggest to the observer, a Fair or a Loan Exhibition. The quality and variety of their winter and Holiday stock of goods is only limited by the capacity of the store, and the public does not seem slow to appreciate the advantages they are offering.
